

THE METHODIST CHURCH

400 Summit Avenue

HACKENSACK, N. J.

The Methodist Church, Hackensack, with its triangular nave, dominant steeple, and glass windows was completed in 1966. Its architecture is an inspired blending of modern, functional and traditional concepts expressed in simple, graceful, and beautiful lines and colors. The design was created by Architect George Johns, of Harsen and Johns.

hc

Pub. by PENDOR NATURAL COLOR, Box 33, Pearl River, N. Y.

PLACE STAMP
HERE

Post Card